

The Missionary Call

Arrive on Field

Missionary Call

Lack of Guidance

INTIMACY WITH THE FATHER

Having a consistent relationship with God leads to fulfillment of His plans for one's life.

MISSIONS EDUCATION

A biblically-based missions education propels those called to the field. Education is also a leading cause of missionary longevity.

SHORT-TERM MISSION TRIPS

Short-term mission trips are a leading cause of calling to the field.

FAMILY

Family often encourage the missionary call. However, there are some instances when family can hinder the call. If a spouse or a parent does not support a call this can be problematic.

CURRENT MISSIONARIES

Friendships with current missionaries help people get to the field. Stories from missionaries have a powerful effect.

The missionary call is a process. God uses some factors that help send people to the mission field, while the enemy uses other factors to distract and get people off-track.

MISSIONARY MENTOR

A mentor that has been involved with missions before is a catalyst for the arrival to the field.
